Pat Carnathan brings 43 years of professional calling to the stage. A classically-trained musician, Pat produces most of the music he uses on stage. He owns Shakedown Records, but has recorded on Royal and Chic, and he's produced music for several labels. Pat is known for lively entertainment, modern music, challenging choreography and a quick sense of humor. Recording under the name Patrick Neal, he released an album of original (non-square dance) music in 1998. Pat's doing his best to erase old stereotypes about square dancing by using modern music and stand-up comedy.

Pat and his wife, Monica, have been married for over fifteen years and both enjoy the square dance activity that has, quite literally, allowed them to travel all over the world.

Please visit Pat's website: www.patcarnathan.com

Tim Pepper has been calling for over 40 years and Bev has been cueing for over 28. They recently relocated to the Carson City, NV area where they have started new lessons and are working regularly for the clubs in the Northern Nevada region. Tim calls through A2 and Bev cues through Phase VI and is the Manual Editor for Roundalab.

Both have known Pat and Monica for many decades and were married at the Carnathan home in Southern California New Year's Eve of 2022! Both Tim & Pat have entertained dancers from all over the world and having conducted over 40 square dance cruises between them, so this will be a great time! Tim and Pat are founding members of Shakedown Records and have entertained dancers all over the world.

We're looking forward to having you join us on this exciting adventure!
