OPENER, MIDDLE BREAK & CLOSER:

Sides face grand square **There's a port on a western bay and it serves a hundred ships a day, Lonely sailors pass the time away as they talk about their home.

Allemande and weave. And now, Brandy, you're a fine girl. What a good wife you would be. But my life, my love, and my lady is the sea.

Lyrics for Middle Break

**There's a girl in this harbor town, and she works layin' whiskey down. They say "Brandy, fetch another round". She serves them whiskey and wine.

Lyrics for Closer

**Brandy wears a braided chain made of the finest silver from the north of Spain. A locket that bears the name of the man that Brandy loves.

FIGURE:

Heads (sides) promenade halfway go, square thru count 'em four hands go, all the way then a right and left thru, veer left and then you ferris wheel. Come on and you square thru three hands round there. swing my corner then you all promenade. But my life, my love, and my lady is the sea.

TAG:

But my life, my love, and my lady is the sea.
